EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This is not a part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

The purpose of this Order is to prescribe the fees to be paid to the Companies Registration Office (CRO) by applications under sections 256F and 256G of the Companies Act 1990. These sections were inserted into the Companies Act 1990 Act by section 3(j) of the Companies (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2009.

An applicant under these sections would be seeking to migrate the registered office of a certain type of collective investment fund entity to or from Ireland from or to a prescribed jurisdiction without firstly having to wind up the entity in its original jurisdiction.
