The priority in which the burdens are to be entered in the register should be clearly stated)	Name of claimant (Where a minor or person of unsound mind, that fact with name of guardian or committee or trustees under section 57 of the Succession Act, 1965, to be stated)	Address in the State of claimant (or where a minor or person of unsound mind, of his guardian or committee or trustee)

NOTE (1) — Deeds or wills (other than probate of the will of the registered owner) should not be lodged. It is the responsibility of the personal representative to administer the estate of the registered owner correctly. Such administration is no concern of the Authority. The effect of all the deeds and wills must be set out correctly in the prescribed Form. See section 61 (3) of the Act as inserted therein by section 54 (2) of the Succession Act, 1965.

NOTE (2) — See section 20 (2) of Administration of Estates Act, 1959, and, in cases of deaths after the commencement of the Succession Act, 1965, on 1st January 1967 (section 52 (2) of that Act).

Where the trustees hold the property on trust for sale the appropriate inhibition to be applied for is a restriction against all dealings by the registered owners or the survivors or survivor of them except by way of sale. Where the property is not held on trust for sale, the utmost care should be taken in framing the inhibition to ensure that while no entry should be made which would interfere with the exercise by the trustees of any powers authorised, e.g. powers of sale and charging, the interests of the beneficiaries are adequately protected by the terms of the inhibition. It is not the duty of the Authority to advise on the suitability or otherwise of any particular form of inhibition nor should the terms of the inhibition be phrased in such a manner as would involve him in an enquiry into the manner in which the trusts are being administered. Normally, the interests of the beneficiaries would be adequately protected by the entry of an inhibition requiring the consent of, or notice to, the beneficiaries or (in the case of minors or persons of unsound mind) their committees or guardians or trustees under section 57 of the Succession Act, 1965.

NOTE (3) — Where the personal representative authorises the registration of a charge for the repayment of a principal sum of money, the interest and terms relating to its repayment should be clearly set out. It must be shown clearly, in the case of such a charge created by deed, when the repayment of the charge may be enforced by the exercise of his power of sale by the registered owner of the charge.

Where the property is not held on trust, the utmost care should be taken in framing the inhibition to ensure that while no entry should be made which would interfere with the exercise by the trustees of any authorised powers e.g. powers of sale and charging, the interests of the beneficiaries are adequately protected by the terms of the inhibition. It is not the duty of the Authority to advise on the suitability or otherwise of any particular form of inhibition nor should the terms of the inhibition be phrased in such a manner as would involve him in an enquiry into the manner in which the trusts are being administered. Normally the interests of the beneficiaries would be adequately protected by the entry of an inhibition requiring the consent of, or notice to, the beneficiaries or (in the case of minors or persons of unsound mind) their committees or guardians or trustees under section 57 of the Succession Act, 1965.

NOTE (3) — The relevant certificates required by the Finance/Stamp Duty Acts may be added to the Form in appropriate cases.

NOTE (4) — For execution and the attestation of the execution of a transfer —see rules 54, 55.

NOTE (5) — Where the personal representative authorises the registration of a charge for the repayment of a principal sum of money, the interest and terms relating to its repayment should be clearly set out. It must be shown clearly, in the case of such a charge created by deed, when the repayment of the charge may be enforced by the exercise of his power of sale by the registered owner of the charge.
