EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations provide for a similar weekly earnings disregard in the case of recipients of the Jobseeker's Transitional Payment (JST) to that which applies to the One-Parent Family Payment (OFP).

The means test applying to JST recipients is being aligned more closely with the OFP means test by increasing the JST earnings disregard from €60 to €90 per week, and assessing the balance of any income at 50% instead of 60%. The basis for the calculation of means on JST is also being altered to change it from a day's basis (i.e. maximum disregard of €20 per day) to one where the entire disregard of €90 applies irrespective of how many days the JST recipient works.
