- (r) with the consent of the Minister, purchase or lease any land or premises and sell, let or otherwise dispose of any land or premises vested in it,
- (s) accept gifts of money, land and other property upon such trusts and conditions, if any, consistent with the provision of its services, as may be specified by the donor,
- (t) make arrangements with the Minister or, with his or her consent, with a person or body, for the use by the Body of premises and equipment belonging to the Minister or that person or body and for the use of the services of officers and servants of the Minister or that person or body,
- (u) with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform where such moneys are provided by the Oireachtas, provide such assistance either by way of grants, prizes or other form of sponsorship as the Council may from time to time determine in respect of activities undertaken by any person with approval of the Council,
- (v) conduct fundraising through volunteer members to fund the services that shall be provided by those members, which funds shall be properly accounted for in accordance with current financial procedures of the water safety area committees as agreed by the Body.

(3) The Body shall have all such powers as are necessary or expedient for the provision by it of its services.

5. (1) (a) Subject to Regulation 3 of the Water Safety Ireland (Transfer of Assets and Liabilities) Order 2019, the Body shall have a Council, which shall consist of not more than 13 members (including a Chairperson) who shall, subject to subparagraph (b), be appointed by the Minister.
 - (b) At least 5 of the members of the Council referred to in paragraph (1) shall be appointed by the Minister on receipt of nominations from water safety area committees.
 - (c) The members referred to in subparagraph (b) shall be members of the Body who are selected by the water safety area committee to which they belong and nominated to the Minister for appointment following an election by each water safety area committee.
 - (d) The rules to regulate the procedure for elections and nominations referred to in subparagraph (c) shall be approved by the Council.
 - (e) The Minister shall, in so far as is practicable, endeavour to ensure that among the members of the Council, there is an equitable balance between men and women.
- (2) (a) Subject to subparagraph (b), a member of the Council shall hold office for such period, not exceeding 5 years, from the date of his or her appointment as the Minister shall determine.

- (b) Subject to subparagraph (c), a member of the Council whose term of office expires by the efflux of time shall be eligible for reappointment to the Council.
 - (c) A person who is appointed to the Council in accordance with subparagraph (b) shall not hold office for a cumulative period of longer than 10 years.
- (3)
 - (a) A member of the Council may resign from office by giving notice in writing to the Minister of his or her resignation and the resignation shall take effect on the day on which the Minister receives the notice.
 - (b) The Minister may at any time remove from office a member of the Council if, in the Minister's opinion, the member has become incapable through ill-health of performing his or her functions, has committed stated misbehaviour, or his or her removal appears to the Minister to be necessary for the effective provision of services by the Council.
 - (c) The Minister may remove, either temporarily or permanently, members of the Council for conduct in breach of the Code of Practice for the Governance of State Bodies or such other codes or policy documents relevant to the governance of State Bodies that may be issued from time to time by a member of the Government.
 - (d) If a member of the Council dies, resigns, ceases to hold office or is removed from office, the Minister may appoint a person to be a member of the Council to fill the casual vacancy so occasioned in the same manner as the member of the Council who occasioned the casual vacancy was appointed.

6. (1) Subject to Regulation 3 of the Water Safety Ireland (Transfer of Assets and Liabilities) Order 2019, the Minister shall appoint a chairperson of the Council (in this Order referred to as the "Chairperson") who shall, subject to paragraph (2), hold office as chairperson for so long as he or she remains a member of the Body, or until the Minister appoints another chairperson, or until he or she resigns as chairperson by letter addressed to the Minister.

(2) A person shall not serve as chairperson for a cumulative period of longer than 10 years.

7. (1) There shall be a chief executive officer of the Body (in this Order referred to as the "Chief Executive").

(2) Subject to Regulation 3 of the Water Safety Ireland (Transfer of Assets and Liabilities) Order 2019, the Chief Executive shall be appointed by the Council with the consent of the Minister.

(3) The Chief Executive may be removed from office by the Council, with the consent of the Minister, at any time for stated reasons.

(4) The Chief Executive shall hold office upon, and subject to, such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Council with the approval of the Minister, given with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform.

8. (1) The Chief Executive shall carry on and manage, and control generally, the staff, administration and business of the Body and carry out such other functions as may be from time to time assigned to him or her by the Council.

(2) The Chief Executive shall perform his or her functions subject to such policies as may be determined from time to time by the Council, and shall be accountable to it for the efficient and effective management of the Body and for the due performance of his or her functions.

(3) The Chief Executive shall not be a member of the Council, but shall be entitled to attend and speak at any meeting of the Council or of any committee established by it under Article 13.

(4) The Chief Executive may make proposals to the Council on any matter relating to its functions.

(5) The Council may designate a member of staff of the Body to be a deputy chief executive officer who shall, in the absence of the Chief Executive or when the position of Chief Executive is vacant, perform the functions of that position.

9. (1) The Council shall be responsible for-

- (a) setting the strategic direction of the Body,
- (b) directing the business of the Body,
- (c) ensuring the effective provision of services by the Body,
- (d) monitoring the activities and effectiveness of the Chief Executive.

10. (1) The Council shall hold such and so many meetings as it considers necessary.

(2) At a meeting of the Council –

- (a) the Chairperson shall, if present, be the chairperson of the meeting, or
- (b) if and so long as the Chairperson is not present or if that office is vacant, the other members of the Council who are present shall choose one of their number to be the chairperson of the meeting.

(3) Every question at a meeting of the Council shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members of the Council present and voting on the question, and, in the case of an equal division of votes, the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), the Council may act notwithstanding one or more vacancies among its members.

(5) The quorum for a meeting of the Council shall be 5.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Council shall determine its own procedures for the conduct of its meetings.

11. (1) The Body shall keep, in such form as may be approved by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, all proper and usual accounts of –

- (a) all money received by or expended by the Body,

- (b) the sources of such income and the subject matter of such expenditure, and
- (c) the property, assets and liabilities of the Body.

(2) The Body shall each year submit accounts kept under paragraph (1) for audit to the Comptroller and Auditor General to the extent and by such date as he or she may from time to time direct.

(3) Immediately after the audit referred to in paragraph (2) the Body shall furnish to the Minister a copy of –

- (a) the accounts, and
- (b) the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General on the accounts.

(4) The Minister shall cause a copy of the accounts furnished under this Article and a copy of the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General on those accounts, to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

(5) The Body, and the members of staff of the Body shall, whenever so requested by the Minister or by an officer of the Minister authorised for that purpose, supply such information relating to its accounts as the Minister or such officer may require and shall permit the Minister or such officer to examine the books and accounts of the Body in respect of any year or other period and the Body shall facilitate any such examination.

12. (1) The Body shall, not later than 30 June in each year, prepare and submit a report to the Minister on its activities in the immediately preceding year.

(2) The Minister, as soon as may be after receiving the report, shall cause a copy of the report referred to in paragraph (1) to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas.

(3) The Body shall furnish to the Minister such information regarding the provision of services under this Order as the Minister may from time to time require.

(4) The Body shall furnish to the Minister in each year a programme of activities for the following year and an estimate of the expenditure to be incurred on such activities.

13. (1) The Council shall establish, or arrange for the establishment of, committees, including committees for specific subject areas and committees for geographical areas to be known as “water safety area committees”, consisting in whole or in part of persons who are members of staff of the Body or volunteer members of the Body, to –

- (a) assist and advise in relation to the provision by the Body of services under this Order, and
- (b) provide, or assist in the provision of, such of the services of the Body as the Body may determine.

(2) In appointing members of a committee established under paragraph (1), the Council shall –

- (a) have regard to the range of qualifications and experience necessary for the proper and effective discharge of the functions of the committee,

(b) endeavour to ensure in so far as is practicable that there is an equitable balance between men and women.

(3) There may be paid by the Body to members of a committee established under paragraph (1) such allowances for expenses (if any) incurred by them as the Council may, with the consent of the Minister and the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, determine.

(4) A member of a committee established under paragraph (1) may be removed from office at any time by the Council.

(5) The activities of a committee shall be subject to confirmation by the Council, unless it otherwise determines.

(6) The Council may determine the terms of reference, and prescribe the rules for the organisation, procedures, membership, election of officers and associated matters, of a committee established under paragraph (1).

(7) The Council may appoint a person to be chairperson of a committee established under paragraph (1).

(8) A committee established under paragraph (1) shall provide the Council with such information as the Council may from time to time require, in respect of its activities and operations, for the purposes of the provision of services by the Body.

(9) The Council may at any time dissolve a committee established under paragraph (1).

14. (1) The Body shall develop a corps of volunteer members to deliver education and training in water safety.

(2) The volunteer members shall pay an annual subscription fee to the Body and shall undergo such training as determined by the Council.

(3) The Body shall establish and maintain a register of –

(a) the volunteer members referred to in paragraph (1),

(b) any award or certificate issued by water safety area committees to volunteer members referred to in paragraph (1).

15. (1) The Body shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Minister, given with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, such and so many persons to be members of the staff of the Body as it may, from time to time, determine.

(2) The terms and conditions of service of a member of staff of the Body shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, given with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, be such as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

(3) There shall be paid by the Body to the members of staff of the Body such remuneration and allowances as, from time to time, the Council, subject to the approval of the Minister, given with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, determines.

16. (1) Schemes and regulations made under the Local Government (Superannuation) Act 1980 (No. 8 of 1980) shall apply to the Body as if it were a local authority and shall apply to persons employed by the Body as if they were persons employed by a local authority.

(2) In the case of persons employed by the Body (including those employed by the dissolved body) from 1 January 2013, the terms of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 (No. 37 of 2012) shall apply.

17. (1) There shall be paid by the Body to the Chairperson such remuneration and allowances as it, from time to time, subject to the approval of the Minister, given with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, determines.

(2) Travelling and subsistence allowances shall be paid by the Body to such persons or classes of persons in accordance with such scales and in such circumstances as may be determined from time to time by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform.

The Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform consents to the making of the foregoing Order.

GIVEN under my Official Seal,
15 February 2019.

PASCHAL DONOHOE,
Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform.
