EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations provide for increases in the earnings disregard which apply to Carer's Benefit and Carer's Allowance, which form part of the Budget measures announced on 1 October 2024.

In the case of Carer's Benefit, the weekly earnings limit is being increased from €450.00 to €625.00 per week with effect from 3 July 2025.

In the case of Carer's Allowance, the weekly means disregard is being increased from €450.00 to €625.00 for a single person and from €900.00 to €1250.00 for a couple. The increases in the disregard will take effect from 3 July 2025.

These Regulations also correct a misalignment in the current text of article 167 which relates to eligibility for the Carer's Support Grant in circumstances where the person being cared for is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution. The effect of the revised alignment is to provide clarity that the 13-week period applies to both of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of Article 167(b) and confirms, in line with article 56(a) as respects Carer's Benefit, and article 136(1)(a) as respects Carer's allowance, that a carer continues to qualify for receipt of the Carer's Support Grant for any period or periods not exceeding 13 weeks in a year where the person being cared for undergoes medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution, or is temporarily being cared for, or temporarily residing with another person. Finally, the Regulations also update the titles of the relevant Departments concerned.
