Information and Guidance

Application for entry to the Register for the Higher Education Constituency

This form should be used by eligible persons to submit their claim to be entered on the Register of Electors for the Seanad Higher Education constituency. The easiest way to register is by completing the application form online at www.seanadvoter.ie.

Eligibility to Register	Important Dates
You must be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ a citizen of Ireland, and ➤ eighteen years of age or older, and ➤ have received a degree (other than an honorary degree) which is at least at bachelor degree level, from a designated institution (listed overleaf) 	Dates are set out in the Seanad Electoral (University Members) (Amendment) Act 2024: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Applications for the first register of electors must be received by 23 January 2025. ➤ Late applications will not be considered. ➤ The first register of electors will be published on 1 April 2025.

The forthcoming Seanad General Election (January 2025) will be held on the basis of the existing NUI and University of Dublin (Trinity College) constituencies electing three Senators each. Where vacancies occur among those elected in accordance with that process, NUI and University of Dublin (Trinity College) graduates who are included on the Higher Education constituency register will be eligible to vote in ensuing by-elections. This arrangement will apply only until any dissolution of the Dáil after 21 March 2025, from which point the Higher Education constituency will elect all six Senators.

The first register of electors for the new constituency will be published on 1 April 2025 and will be in force until the first annual revision is complete. A revised register will be published on 1 June 2026 and every 1 June thereafter.
